UNUSUAL RECITAL PLEASED VERY LARGE AUDIENCE LAST NIGHT

Miss Marie Morrissey and Assistant Gave Wonderful Demonstration at Christian Church.

The concert held at the Christian Church on Friday evening was a unique affair. The guests, whose number included most of the music lovers of Maysville society, assembled delighted at the prospect of hearing a recital by the celebrated Miss Marie Morrissey, assisted by Jacques Glockner with his cello. But a surprise was in store for them. Not one Miss Morrissey, but two, sang to the spell-bound audience; and the cello selections were played by two Jacques Glockners. And, this phenomenon was brought about by means of a graceful cabinet, which stood beside the artists on the stage, and matched their performances, note for note and tone for tone.

The first performance of the miracle was in the initial number on the program, when Miss Morrissey, standing beside the cabinet, sang in unison with Mr. Edison's Re-Creation of her own voice. In the midst of the song, Miss Morrissey's lips ceased to move but her song went on without a break. Slowly it dawned upon the astonished audience that the artist was no longer singing, though her voice came forth to them as clear and sweet as ever. She sang again—and the only perceptible difference was the motion of her lips. She ceased—but her voice did not. Veritably it seemed that there were two singers upon the stage—two singers, but only one voice. For the tones which came from the New Edison matched those from the living artist so perfectly that it was impossible to detect any difference. The instrument produced not an echo or copy, but the real thing—Miss Morrissey's voice unspooled by any mechanical transformation; untainted by any metallic ring.

After the applause which followed this remarkable exhibition, Mr. Glockner came forward to share the stage with his fellow musician, the New Edison. Again two artists were before us, for Mr. Glockner with his cello played in unison with the Re-Creation of his art. Only by watching him could we tell when we were hearing one Jacques Glockner and when his music came to us in double measure. The instrumental Re-Creation was as per-

W. D. COCHRAN IN CHARGE RED CROSS ROLL CALL HERE

County Organization For Red Cross Membership Will Soon Be Announced—Headquarters to Be Opened.

Hon. W. D. Cochran has been named as County Chairman for the Red Cross Roll Call which campaign will be opened within a few days in this state. Mr. Cochran has been prominently identified with all war work in Mason county since the very beginning of the war and has also been a member of the State Council of Defense. It is certain that with him as a leader Mason county will again do its full part toward the great organization which yet has a big task before it in Europe.

Headquarters for the Mason county campaign will be opened at the Chamber of Commerce building in the very near future and Mr. Cochran will name his preselected workers and the balance of his county organization in the very near future.

Every one in the county who this year is a member of the Red Cross will, of course, want to join again for 1919 and it is expected that a large number of new members will be secured.

TOBACCO MARKET SUPERVISOR TO BE ELECTED DEC. 23

A very important meeting of the Maysville Tobacco Association will be held on the evening of December 23 when all plans for the opening of the Maysville market on January 1 will be completed and a supervisor for the market for the season will be elected.

As that of Miss Morrissey's delightful voice. It was identical with the original in every particular.

Successive numbers on the program proved that the field of the New Edison is not limited to vocal and cello records. An orchestra selection was Re-Created with such fidelity that it was possible to follow the notes of any single instrument throughout the piece, for the identity of each was preserved, contributing its special color to the ensemble. A Re-Creation of a number of the piano was a revelation to those who had decided after hearing talking machines records, that the piano tone could not be reproduced. Further numbers in which Miss Morrissey and Mr. Glockner, performed with themselves served to convince the audience of their inability to distinguish between Re-Created art and its original.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH RENEWS ITS FLU WARNING

Kentucky Health Board Renews Influenza Warning—Vaccine Offered Free For Prevention of Disease.

Bowling, Green, Ky., December 6, 1918. To the Health Officials, Physicians and People:—

Early in October, before the full import of the danger from influenza was grasped by the people, and well in advance of such action in most other states, churches, schools and all other places of public assembly were rigidly closed, and, with the aid of the public press, the State was flooded with warning and advisory literature, with the result that, in spite of the hardships inseparable from such drastic measures vitally affecting the most treasured customs and privileges of every community and home, there was such universal and helpful co-operation from the clergy, the teachers, woman's clubs and the rank and file of the people, as to greatly restrict the spread of the disease, except in certain mining and other sections and homes where the housing conditions made it impossible to secure proper ventilation and prevent over-crowding, associated, as such conditions always are, with lack of nourishment, nursing and medical attention, and with the high death rate incident to any kind of sickness of people so situated.

In response to urgent calls of distress, mainly from such sections, within four weeks this board, the U. S. Public Health Service, the Kentucky Red Cross and the State Council of Defense, meeting weekly, and utilizing their respective auxiliary organizations in every county and community in collecting information and extending help, 96 physicians and 215 nurses and Sisters of Charity were sent to do relief, often under difficulties and living conditions easier to imagine than describe. Except in such sections and in some of the wealthier counties, where short-sighted, niggardly Fiscal Courts have always forced doctors to carry on health work at their own expense, or leave it undone, the epidemic was soon under such measurable control that it was thought safe to remove or greatly liberalize the quarantine restrictions from the jurisdictions first attacked which had good health organizations, until this has now been done in nearly all cities and in about two-thirds of the counties.

Everything went well for a few days when, following the peace celebrations and similar festivities, during which all precautions and safeguards were thrown to the winds, a notable increase of new cases, fortunately of a milder type, was reported almost everywhere, until in many counties the disease again assumed such an epidemic form that demands were constantly received for a renewal of the restrictions, the local authorities often imposing them without waiting for advice. Except in a few instances this Board has insisted that, as the more violent and fatal stage of this epidemic has passed, individual cases and families be more rigidly isolated than in the past without again closing churches and schools and that ministers, teachers, the press, and all other leaders of public opinion be enlisted in the education of the people in the recognized methods of its prevention, and especially about staying away from crowds and places where it is likely to exist.

Within the last few days such insistent representations came in from Louisville that the disease had again reached such epidemic proportions as to require action by this Board, its officers on last Wednesday afternoon called a conference of leading general practitioners of that city in order to get reliable, first-hand information. It was the unanimous opinion of these gentlemen that, while the disease was far milder and, differed from the earlier stage of the epidemic in that it attacked children more frequently than adults, it was far more prevalent and widely distributed than at any previous time, and without a dissenting voice they recommended that all restrictions be re-imposed, several of them asserting that they were advising all families under their care to keep the children out of school and that both the children and parents stay away from all public gatherings until the danger was over.

Immediately upon the simultaneous perfection of the vaccine for the prevention of influenza and its fatal complications, by the laboratories of the Rockefeller Institute, the Mayo Clinic and several private manufacturers, a few weeks ago, and its approval by the Surgeon General of the Army and other proper authorities, this Board began earnest effort to secure it in quantities but, on account of preference being properly given to the urgent needs of the Army and other branches of the public service, only small supplies could then be obtained for use in a few highly infected districts and families. While this conference with the Louisville physicians was being held a wire was received from Dr. Rosenow, Director of the Mayo Laboratories, at Rochester, Minnesota, that 10,000 doses of the vaccine had been sent to the Board and that 100,000 more would follow as needed for free distribution to all health officials and physicians who would keep and return to this Board for tabulation the records and results of all inoculations.

With these generous supplies of vaccine in its possession and with a strong and active Health Department and excellent public spiritual profession, to administer it, even in the light of the grave conditions revealed by the conference, it was decided, for the present at least, to place supplies of vaccine in the hands of all health officials of the State for their own use, and for distribution to physicians who will keep and return the record of cases, and to ask the City Health Department of Louisville, and other cities so far as practicable, to open one or more Free Clinics for the free inoculation of the indigent, placing a very liberal construction upon this term.

Recognizing that picture shows, ten-cent stores and department stores, drug and special sales and other hours of congestion, are constant sources of danger in an epidemic like this, these and all similar places were recommended to the special care of the boards of health of all cities, with authority, even to the point of closing, to impose any restrictions necessary to protect the public health, and it is especially recommended that during the period of this epidemic all children under sixteen years of age should be rigidly excluded from picture shows.

In general the Board advises during this epidemic that you:

1. Keep away from crowds of all kinds.
2. Keep out of the sick room and away from houses with sickness, unless your services are needed. Keep clean and wear a mask if you do go.
3. Walk to your place of business if possible—avoid crowded cars.
4. Cover your cough or sneeze and keep away from people who do not.
5. Keep away from dirty eating and soft drink houses.
6. Open your windows at night, adding extra bedding if necessary.
7. Call a physician if you or your family show any signs of sickness.
8. After influenza, stay in bed until your doctor advises you to get up.
9. Do not handle anything from the sick room until it is boiled.
10. Have and do little visiting until this epidemic is over.
11. Cordially cooperate with your Health Officer and Physician in preventing the spread of influenza.

By order of the Board,
JOHN G. SOUTH, M. D., President.
J. N. McCORMACK, M. D., Secretary.

CANTRILL SAYS TOBACCO PROSPECT HERE IS BRIGHT

Cantrill Says Light Crop This Year Should Indicate That Price of Burley Should Continue Satisfactory.

Washington, December 7.—A bright prospect for tobacco growers is forecasted by Representative J. C. Cantrill, of Kentucky, in a statement given out, based on the quarterly report of the Census Bureau showing the stocks of leaf tobacco held by the manufacturers and dealers in the United States on October 1. Representative Cantrill, who is a large tobacco grower and author of the law under which the tobacco census is taken, says of the outlook:

"This report is of unusual interest, as the market for Kentucky tobacco will open very shortly. The total stocks of all tobaccos in the United States are practically the same as a year ago, showing that during war times even, with foreign shipments largely curtailed on account of a shortage of ships, consumption of tobacco has been equal to production, which means a healthy condition, especially so far as the tobacco grower is concerned.

"The situation as to the Burley crop is especially favorable to the grower, as the manufacturers of this type have 17,000,000 pounds less of Burley than they had a year ago and their holdings of Burley leaf are less than they have been since the Cantrill law was passed six years ago. The total holdings of Burley are only 190,000,000 pounds, and every one knows the crop of Burley this year will be very light. The Burley market, based on supply and demand, should be higher than ever in the history of the market.

"With a light crop grown this year and with holdings less than usual, the buyers of Burley should be eager to make a very high market. The average crop of Burley is about 250,000,000 pounds and the report shows that the manufacturers have less than a year's supply of Burley in stock."

CROWN PRINCE HAS FORMALLY RENOUNCED RIGHTS

Frederick Wilhelm Formally Signs Renunciation of all Rights to German Throne.

Paris, December 6.—Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm has renounced his right to the German throne. A dispatch received in Basel from the semi-official Wolff bureau quotes the Crown Prince in renouncing the throne as having said:

"I renounce formally and definitely all rights to the crown of Prussia and the Imperial crown which would have fallen to me by the reunciation of the emperor-king or for other reasons."

"Given by my authority and signed by my hand. Done at Wehringen, December 1, 1918. (Signed) "WILHELM."

In an interview with a correspondent on the island of Wehringen, received in New York December 3, which bore no evidence of delay, and presumably was given not earlier than December 2, Frederick Wilhelm said: "I have not signed any document whatever."

He added that should the German government desire to form a republic he would be content to return to Germany as a simple citizen, ready to do anything to assist his country—even to work as a laborer in a factory.

OLD SANTA WILL VISIT ALL POOR KIDDIES

Business Men Will Again This Year Distribute Toys and Candles to Poor Children.

The business men of this city will give their annual Christmas treat to the poor children who on Christmas morning will have no Santa Claus call upon them. This has been the custom of the business men of this city for the last three or four years. They will have Old Santa there in full regalia, and every poor child whose parents will be unable to have Christmas for them at home is expected to come to the Court House on Christmas Eve, Tuesday afternoon, December 24th, at 2 o'clock and see old Santa Claus and get his or her Christmas package. All ladies are asked to go through their neighborhood and see that all worthy poor children are present at the Court House on Tuesday afternoon, December 24th. The business men of this city, and those in charge of getting this up, are to be commended highly for this annual charitable act, as it gladdens the heart of many a child, who otherwise, would spend a sad Christmas. Let every one see that every worthy poor child is on hand on the above date.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

IT'S THUMBS DOWN

So far as America is concerned, it is thumbs down for Germany until the peace conference has finally decided her fate. Germany's friends in America must be made to realize this.

For already the German propagandists are getting busy in her behalf. Now that the armistice has been signed, the war to all intents and purposes ended, they are talking sympathetically of the stricken atherland, trying to sway public opinion in her behalf, and it must be stopped!

Germany halted at nothing in her mad raid upon Europe. Every principle of humanity was tossed into the discard. No cruelty, no outrage, no form of destruction and devastation was too drastic. And in her methods of warfare she set a pace that horrified all civilization.

And finally, when she was all in, beaten to a standstill and whipped beyond hope of recovery, she came to us with bloody hands up, pleading for mercy.

It wasn't America's war. Of all the nations involved, America suffered the least. The appalling blood cost fell most heavily upon Europe. And the German fate will in the finality be decided at European hands.

Germany knows this. Knows that she can hope for little mercy at European hands. But she is counting largely upon the influence of sympathetic American public opinion.

But more, she is counting upon her friends here to arouse that sympathy. Right now the American duty is to block this propaganda. To keep hands off and let Germany face her fate.

Every active German sympathizer found pleading the German cause should be reported to the Federal authorities instantly. With America it's thumbs down.

STILL AN ISSUE

The administration insisted all through the campaign that the tariff was not an issue, but the tariff commission was kept busy just the same compiling data and publishing it, for the information of Congress in framing future tariff legislation. And in its bulletins and reports, the commission makes no recommendations. It has expressly taken the position that the enactment of a tariff law is entirely a task for Congress, and that its function is merely to present facts. Whether this shall be a protective tariff or a free trade country is a question of policy, which the commission correctly holds is a matter for Congress to determine. The tariff is, therefore, an issue before Congress and the country.

PRESIDENT FAVORS BEGINNING HIGHWAY WORK AT ONCE

Secretary of War Also Writes to Secretary of Agriculture in Favor of Resuming Work Under Federal Aid Road Act.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson favors the earliest possible resumption and extension of highway construction under the Federal Aid Road Act and has written Secretary of Agriculture Houston to that effect. The Secretary of War also has written the Secretary of Agriculture in favor of highway work.

The President's letter follows: "Dear Mr. Secretary: "I heartily agree with you that it would be in the public interest to resume in full measure the highway construction operations under the Federal Aid Road Act, and to do so as speedily as possible. I understand the necessity which existed for their contraction during the stress through which we have been passing, but that obstacle is now removed. I believe that it would be highly desirable to have an additional appropriation made available to the Department of Agriculture, to be used in conjunction, if possible, with any surplus State and community funds, in order that these operations may be extended. It is important not only to develop good highways throughout the country as quickly as possible, but it is also at this time especially advisable to resume and extend all such essential public works, with a view to furnishing employment for laborers who may be seeking new tasks during the period of readjustment. Knowing that the Department of Agriculture and the State highway authorities in each State have been carefully working out road systems and developing plans and specifications, I have no doubt that all activities in this field can be vigorously conducted through these two sets of existing agencies, acting in full accord."

"Faithfully yours,
"WOODROW WILSON."

The following letter has been received from Secretary of War Baker: "My Dear Mr. Secretary:

"I am in full agreement with your view that there should not only be a prompt resumption of road construction under the Federal Aid Road Act, and under such further authority as may exist for separate State action, but also that additional funds should be made available to your department for the extension of such work. The War Department, as you know, detailed one of its officers to serve with your Bureau of Public Roads in its consideration of highways which might have a value for military purposes, and I shall be glad to have the closest possible cooperation continue as the work enlarges.

"Cordially yours,
"NEWTON D. BAKER,
"Secretary of War."

AN OPPORTUNITY TO HELP SERVE

The story of the accomplishments of the American Red Cross reads more like the invention of perverdd imagination than actual fact, yet wonderful as they have been the half has not been told of the noble achievements of the consecrated men and women who are giving their lives to the amelioration of suffering and caring for those who are wounded, sick or afflicted. A noted general says it is the greatest moral force ever conceived and has done more to keep up the morale of the army thereby aiding it in winning battles, almost than munitions themselves. Hostilities have ceased, but not the need of the services of the Red Cross. We have two millions of soldiers in France and it will take many months to bring them home and get the country on a peace basis again. Besides, the people of the torn and bleeding countries, devastated and demoralized by war, must be succored and sustained to meet the serious battle of life that confronts them. It takes money and vast sums of it to enable the workers to do full service and it is proposed in part to raise it by selling memberships in the organization at one dollar. Surely everyone with a drop of milk of human sympathy will want to aid by joining the organization and contributing his mite. Every body is asked to do so and it is confidently hoped that universal membership will be secured before the coming of the Yule Tide.

WAR EXPOSITION WILL BE GREAT SHOW OF WAR RELICS

Every Nationally Which Participated in Great War Will Be Represented in Big Show.

Every nationally which participated in the recent great world war will be represented in the United States and Allied Governments War Exposition to be held at Music Hall, Cincinnati, from December 14 to 22. The officials of the various nations which have been opposing the central powers have been assembling for the past four years thousands of historical trophies and relics captured by them or made sacred by the associations of these materials and objects in connection with the mighty struggle; for instance there have been gathered together for exhibition purposes a large number of relics from the churches, public buildings and other institutions ruined and devastated by the Germans. These objects of art, religion and municipal record show the evidences of the ruthlessness of the Huns and convey more forcibly than words the graphic argument for the suppression of the power which makes such conduct possible.

Among the battlefield trophies will be found every form of equipment known to the contesting armies from the smallest form of ammunition to the largest class of field artillery. Everything will be shown that had a bearing on the great struggle, including cannon intact and cannon partially destroyed, either by shell fire or by their original operators to prevent them falling into the hands of the Allies in the collection. Perfect reproductions of the various camp institutions also will be shown. These will include Y. M. C. A. Huts, Knights of Columbus rest stations, Salvation Army kitchens and dining rooms, Y. W. C. A. hostess houses, first aid stations, Red Cross hospitals, trench outfits and the many other institutions and recreation buildings which have figured so largely in giving comfort to the soldiers of the Allies and sustaining their high morale.

New features are continually being added to the list of entertainments to be given in Music Hall proper. The arrangement of the programs calls for practically continuous performances of music, pictures, addresses, tableaux, pageants and other features from the time of the opening of the Exposition at 10:30 a. m. until the close at night.

Scores of cities in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia have already organized special parties to visit the Exposition. It is expected that this interest in the historical, educational and inspirational value of the exhibit will spread throughout the territory contiguous to the enterprise.

W. H. Lynch, shoe maker, E. Third St., says: "My kidneys were weak and sluggish. At one time the action of my kidneys stopped altogether. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time the action of my kidneys became normal. I kept on taking them and they completely relieved me." (State given January 9, 1912.)

TROUBLE NEVER RETURNED. On November 14, 1916, Mr. Lynch said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. They have permanently cured me."

Mr. Lynch is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Lynch has—the remedy backed by home testimony. 40 cents at all stores. COLORFD TROOPS MADE A RECORD FOR THEMSELVES

Commander of Famous Buffalo Regiment Compliments His Troops.

Prof. W. H. Humphrey hands in the following compliment to the colored troops of the United States written by Col. James A. Moss, Commander of the famous 367th Infantry (colored). It appears as an introduction to a recent magazine article on "The Buffaloes":

Having been born and reared in the State of Louisiana, whose confines I did not leave until I went to West Point at the age of eighteen, and having served eighteen years with colored troops, including two campaigns, what I say about the colored man as a soldier is therefore based on many years' experience with him in civil life and in the Army—in peace and in war, in garrison and in the field.

If properly trained and instructed, the colored man makes as good a soldier as the world has ever seen. The history of the Negro in all of our wars, including our Indian campaigns, shows this. He is by nature of a happy disposition; he is responsive and tractable; he is very amenable to discipline; he takes pride in his uniform; he has faith and confidence in his leader; he possesses physical courage—all of which are valuable military assets.

The secret of making an efficient soldier out of the colored man lies in knowing the qualities he possesses that are military assets, and which I have named, and then appealing to and developing them—that is, utilizing them to the greatest extent possible.

Make the colored man feel that you have faith in him, and then, by sympathetic and conscientious training and instruction, help him to fit himself in a military way to indicate that faith, to "make good." Be strict with him, but treat him fairly and justly, making him realize that in your dealings with him he will always be given a square deal. Commend him when he does well and punish him when he is refractory—that is to say, let him know that he will always get what is coming to him, whether it be reward or whether it be punishment. In other words, treat and handle the colored man as you would any other human being out of whom you would make a good soldier, out of whom you would get the best there is in him, and you will have as good a soldier as history has ever known—a man who will drill well, shoot well, march well, obey well, fight well—in short, a man who will give a good account of himself in battle, and who will conduct and behave himself properly in camp, in garrison, and in other places.

I commanded colored troops in the Cuban campaign and in the Philippine campaign, and I have had some of them killed and wounded by my very side. At no time did they ever falter at the command to advance nor hesitate at the order to charge. I am glad that I am to command colored soldiers in this, my third campaign—the greatest war the world has ever known.

JAS. A. MOSS, Colonel 367th Infantry.

BRITISH DAY WILL BE OBSERVED BY SCHOOLS

Frankfort, Ky., December 5—The "flu" has put an end to elaborate celebration of Britain day Saturday in Kentucky.

State School Superintendent V. O. Gilbert said that with only 50 per cent. of the schools open, and they poorly attended, striving to make up back work, observance of the occasion will not be marked by exercises in most instances.

He said: "I had intended, by request, to issue a proclamation to the schools, but realized the futility of it, and, instead, sent a letter to school authorities throughout the State, calling their attention to Britain day and asking them to observe it."

TWO DISPATCHES SIDE BY SIDE

(Manufacturers Record)

On the bulletin boards of one of the Baltimore daily papers there appeared on Wednesday last two dispatches. One was from Holland. It read:

"The Kaiser is at all times cheerful."

On the adjoining bulletin board, side by side with the other, was the following statement from Berlin:

"The casualties in the German Army up to October 31 were 6,320,000."

And yet "the Kaiser was at all times cheerful!"

We imagine that Satan himself is as cheerful as it is possible for a Satanical fiend to be. Hell doubtlessly rings with this cheerfulness at every new atrocity committed by Germany, and so, even amid the infernal regions of endless torture, there is a certain form of cheerfulness—cheerfulness that more atrocities have been committed. "The Kaiser is at all times cheerful," though facing him are more than six million casualties of German soldiers and about twice as many of the soldiers of the Allies and of Russia.

The greatest murderer since the world began, the greatest criminal nation ever known to mankind, glories in its atrocities.

There is not a man or woman in Germany, so far as the people of this country can learn who has any more right to be cheerful than the Kaiser himself, for they are all one and the same, all guilty of the same crimes, all bespattered with the blood of mangled infants and murdered soldiers, by

UPHOLDING THOSE GUILTY OF THESE CRIMES.

The cry of dishonored womanhood, of wailing babies, the agony of the soldiers on the battlefield, should, as long as a single German criminal man or woman lives, ring forever in their ears. Never should a German who has been responsible for upholding this war have one hour of peace, but by day and by night the wailing of the dying babies, the horror of dishonored womanhood, should haunt them, for there is no other way in which they can be adequately punished for their earth for their crimes. Into all mighty God their future beyond this world must be left. So long as they live on this earth they should be made to realize the fearful, fearful crimes which they have committed.

He who would offer a "peace of reconciliation" to such criminals is but offering peace to unrepentant fiends. Christ himself never did that.

PACIFIC COAST CITIES SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKE

Seattle, December 6—Seattle and cities in the vicinity were shaken by an earth tremor at 12:45 this morning. Occupants of buildings in the downtown district here found the tremor especially noticeable. Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., and island points report nothing of the disturbance. In Vancouver the disturbance was felt for two minutes. Persons in tall buildings were especially affected, many being seized with nausea.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs. in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught." Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it! NC-131

PEACE CONGRESS WILL OPEN FIRST OF NEW YEAR

Preliminary Conference of Allies On December 16 and 17—Wilson Hears News by Wireless.

Paris, December 7.—Plans for the assembling of the Inter-Allied Peace Conference, December 16 or 17, at the French Foreign Office in the Quai d'Orsay, and for the opening peace congress the first week in January, were reported to President Wilson today by wireless. These plans are the result of conferences between Premier Clemenceau and Colonel E. M. House, the latter having sufficiently recovered from influenza to resume his work. The President was advised that the British delegates to the peace conference would consist of Premier David Lloyd George, Foreign Minister A. J. Balfour, Chancellor of the Exchequer Andrew Bonar Law and George Nicoll Barnes, labor member of the War Cabinet, and that a fifth member probably would be selected. The names of the French delegates have not yet been announced. King Victor Emmanuel of Italy will be in Paris and Versailles simultaneously with the President, and plans for the entertainment of the two had caused the Allied diplomats to seek a postponement of the opening of the peace congress. The Americans had urgently requested, however, that the first week in January be fixed for it, and this was finally agreed upon. It is expected that the conference will last four months, and that the final agreement will be reached in May.

Senator and Representative Promise That Mason County Will Not Be Forgotten in Distribution of Trophies.

In a communication addressed to Representative W. J. Fields and Senator J. W. J. FIELDS.

Mr. Carl Dodds. Dear Sir: I have your letter of November 23, in which you say that it is the desire of a number of your business men that in the distribution of war trophies Mason county may be remembered. I do not know what the policy of the War Department may be in this matter, but if an opportunity comes where I can be of assistance to your county in securing some of these trophies, it will give me pleasure to render it. Very sincerely yours, J. C. W. BECKHAM.

THE DOG

I love a good dog. I think that there is no animal which shows more nearly human intelligence than a good dog. He will show more than human forgiveness, and will take no unmerited kick and hold no grudge toward his master. A good dog is also subject to tremendous danger at the present time. His life, and what is of equal importance to a dog, his reputation are in great peril just now. There is a new definition of a good dog which has just been officially promulgated—ALL GOOD DOGS WEAR A TAG. And by the way, if he hasn't his tag before January 1st, his fond owner will get pinched when he tries to buy the tag.
